

The Episcopal Parish of St. Paul
Duluth, Minnesota

The Day of Pentecost
Holy Eucharist
May 19, 2024
10:00 am

Please join us for a special celebration of St. Paul's high school graduates in the Parish Hall after this service.

Sign the cards for each graduate and enjoy a piece of cake.

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church

I'm New

Welcome! If you would like to stay in touch, please fill out a visitor card in the pew and place it in the offering plate after the announcements.

About Our Worship Today

Worship in the Episcopal Church is participatory and embodied. We stand and kneel, make the sign of the cross at times, sing and breathe together, and walk forward for communion each week. You are welcome to participate at your own comfort level. You will likely see people engaging differently at different times. One of the gifts of the Episcopal tradition is that there are a variety of 'right' ways to participate.

Restrooms

Exit at the side door at the front of the church and go down the hall.

What do I do?

This service booklet will give you the words you need and instructions. The words in bold print are said by everyone. Hymns can be found either in this booklet or in the blue or green hymnals in your pew.

May I have communion?

Yes. All may come forward to receive communion (or the Eucharist.) No one is required to receive. We are serving both bread and wine. You may choose to receive at your own comfort level, both bread and wine or just bread. You may also come forward with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing, or you may choose not to come forward at all. Children may receive at any age.

Children's Church & Worshiping with Kids

Joyful noise is most welcome here. Many families find that sitting close to the front helps children to see and engage better with the service. There is a staffed nursery located down the hall. We also have a rocking chair in the back of church for parents with infants.

About St. Paul's

We are a community dedicated to following the Way of Love as shown to us by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Together we practice curiosity, awe, and community to love God, love our neighbor, and love ourselves.

The Liturgical Season

In the Episcopal Church, we follow a circular calendar with special seasons. We are currently in the season of Easter, which lasts seven Sundays or 50 days. During this season we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus, the appearances to his disciples, and God's power to conquer death with love.

Second Prelude

O Be Joyful

Karl Zinsmeister

In its exuberance, this piece changes meter in nearly every measure with many measure containing an uneven number of beats such as seven or eleven. It is a challenge to count and a joy to play.

Processional Hymn #512 — Come, Gracious Spirit, Heavenly Dove

Opening Acclamation

Alleluia. Christ is risen!

Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Opening Prayer

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

No Children's Invitation Today

Because St. Paul's youth will be speaking during the service, younger children will stay in the sanctuary so they can be present to hear their stories. The nursery will be open for the littlest littles.

Gloria

Glo - ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav'n-ly King, al -

High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spir - it, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray... (Pause for Silent Prayer) Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
 and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
 and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
 in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
 and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
 and the moon to blood,
 before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104:25-35, 37

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord, my God, you are great indeed!
How manifold are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your creatures. Refrain
If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust.
When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth. Refrain
May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord be glad in his works!
Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the Lord. Refrain

Second Reading

Romans 8:22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn #516 — Come Down, O Love Divine

Holy Gospel

John 15:26-27, 4b-15

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon Messages from a few of our graduates: Agnes, Audrey, Gabe, Tanis, Arna, Lucy

The Prayers of the People

Deacon: Let us with all confidence bring before God the needs of all our world, asking God for renewal and peace as we follow Jesus.

After each petition, the prayer leader says "For Christ is risen, so we pray." The congregation responds:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins, kneeling or sitting as you are able:

The Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please kneel or sit. Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

Blessing of All Graduates

Announcements

Those who are celebrating a birthday or anniversary will be invited forward after the announcements.

Birthday and Anniversary Prayer

Dear Father, we thank thee that all the year through

Thy goodness has blest them with gifts ever new.

And, oh, wilt thou grant them a happy new year,

Dear Father, we pray thee, be thou ever near. Amen.

Walk in love, as Christ loved us, and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offering

Pilgrim's Hymn

Stephen Paulus

Even before we call on your name to ask you, O God,
 When we seek for the words to glorify you, you hear our prayer;
 Unceasing love, O unceasing Love, surpassing all we know.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
 Even with darkness sealing us in, we breathe your name,
 And through all the days that follow so fast, we trust in you;
 Endless your grace, O endless your grace beyond all mortal dream.
 Both now and forever, and unto ages and ages. Amen.

—Michael Dennis Browne, Gloria Patri

Offertory:

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving and Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you. And al-so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. . . . Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho ly, Lord, God of Hosts: Heav-en and earth are full of thy glo - ry. Glo - ry be to thee, O Lord Most High. Bless-ed is he that com-eth in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We give thanks to you, O God... Therefore, according to his command, O Father:

We remember his death. We proclaim his resurrection. We await his coming in glory.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all...By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

A - men.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Fraction Anthem

A musical score for a Fraction Anthem in G major, 4/4 time. It consists of five staves of music with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "O Lamb of God, that tak-est a - way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up on us. O Lamb of God, that tak-est a - way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up - on us. O Lamb of God, that tak-est a - way the sins of the world, grant us thy peace." The music features a mix of quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, with some rests and a final key signature change to D major.

Because we believe that we gather around the Lord's table, all are welcome and encouraged to receive communion.

The bread is typically received in the hand. You may dip the bread or take a sip from the cup.

Low-gluten hosts (<.002%) are available for those with wheat sensitivities.

Communion Music

Crowded Table — Agnes Barthel and Olivia Morin Swanson, duet

*You can hold my hand when you need to let go. I can be a mountain when you're feeling valley low.
I can be a streetlight showing you the way home, if you can hold my hand when you need to let go.
I want a house with a crowded table, and a place by the fire for everyone.
Let us take on the world while we're young and able, and bring us back together when the day is done.
If we want a garden, we're goin' to have to sow the seeds, plant a little happiness, let the roots run deep.
If it's love that we give, then it's love that we reap.
The door is always open; your picture's on my wall. Everyone's a little broken, and everyone belongs.*

*Gabriel's Oboe — Enrico Morricone
St. Paul's Handbell Choir*

Post Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Let us pray.

Almighty and ever living God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Blessing

May Almighty God, who enlightened the minds of the disciples by pouring out upon them the Holy Spirit, make you rich with blessing, that you may abound more and more in that Spirit for ever. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, One God and Mother of us All, be upon you now and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Recessional Hymn — God of Tempest, God of Whirlwind — See next page

The Dismissal

Go in peace to serve the risen Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Bible Study on the Samuels

Thursdays, now through June 20 or later
10:00 –11:30 am, Olcott Room

Join us Thursday mornings from 10 -11:30 am in the Olcott Room beginning May 16 for an exploration of 1 & 2 Samuel. This Old Testament book details both the rise of the monarchy and prophecy in Israel, and may be especially helpful as we enter into "Ordinary Time" this summer where the Sunday lectionary predominantly features Samuel.

Sue Sommer will lead the class and will use Walter Brueggeman's "Interpretation" commentary as a guide. Participants do NOT need to purchase the commentary, but should plan on bringing a Bible with them to class. This will be discussion-based; no questions are ever off-limits; tangents are welcome!

Email Sue at suelsommer1@gmail.com or text at 847-894-5610 for more information.

No Children's Church

Sunday, May 19, 10:00 am

Because we will be celebrating the wonderful graduates at St. Paul's and youth will be speaking during the service, younger children will stay in the sanctuary so they can be present to hear their stories. The nursery will be open for the littlest littles.

Celebrate Our Acolytes

Sunday, May 19, 11:45 am

Memorial Day Observed

Sunday, May 26-Monday, May 27

Please note that there will be no 8 am service on May 26, Memorial Weekend. Also, all church offices will be closed in observance of Memorial Day on Monday, May 27, but the Columbarium will be open for visitors from 9:00 am—12:00 pm. Visitors must use the door facing Superior Street, next to the Celtic Garden.

Reflections on Ecumenical Leadership: Forum with retired Bishop Craig Anderson

Sunday, June 2, 11:30 am, Parish Hall

This summer, St. Paul's will have a special guest, a visiting retired bishop from South Dakota. Bishop Craig Anderson was bishop of South Dakota from 1984 to 1993. He was the president of General Theological Seminary from 1993 to 1998, and became president of the National Council of Churches in 1995, where he served in leadership until 2001. He currently serves Lutheran congregations in SW Minnesota. With such an extensive background on church leadership, both within the Episcopal Church and across denominations, we will host a forum after church where we can ask Bishop Anderson about his experiences. What are the biggest challenges facing the church today, and how have they changed? What gifts does ecumenical ministry bring to the average congregation? This promises to be an interesting and informative hour of good conversation!

The Rt. Rev. Craig Anderson and his wife, Liz Anderson

Outreach Team Meeting

Sunday, June 23, 11:15 am, Parish Hall

Come to share team updates, learn about additional ministries started and ministry opportunities. Plans for Chum's Rhubarb Festival baking, baskets for the bucket raffle, volunteers for the big day, and Loaves & Fishes block party are all on the agenda for summer outreach events. All are welcome!

Episcopal Church Summer Camps

Middle/High School Youth:

Sunday, June 23 - Thursday, June 27

Green Lake Bible Camp, Spicer, MN

Each year students from around the state gather for a week of outdoor activities, fun, and community at the ECMN Youth Camp. This is a great opportunity for middle and high schoolers to get outside and make friends with other Episcopal youth. Camp also introduces prayer practices in a new environment, offering an opportunity to be grounded and engage their spirituality. This year, our Rector will be one of the camp chaplains, so St. Paul's students will have an adult there that they already know. Cost: $450.

Family Camp: July 28 - August 1 Green Lake Bible Camp, Spicer, MN

Join other Episcopal Families from around the state for fun, connection, and learning. Families will stay in cabins at the camp and gather together to pray together, play together, and explore the great outdoors with a focus on spirituality. Cost: $450 for adults, $250 per kid, infants and preschoolers are free.

Scholarships: ECMN has a healthy scholarship fund that is often underutilized. Please do not let cost be a barrier.

Super Rhubarb Festival

Saturday, June 29, 9:00 am - 3:00 pm,
2802 E 4th St, Duluth

Chum's Rhubarb Festival started as a way to turn an abundant resource (rhubarb) into a fundraiser for the ministries of Chum, but it's also a great place to gather all the congregations to work and play together and get to know each other. It takes hundreds of us to make this happen! There are a lot of different volunteer shifts available, from June 1 -30. Use this link to sign up to volunteer for specific tasks, dates, and times. <https://www.chumduluth.org/rhubarbfestival>

St. Paul's Youth Canoe Trip

July 22 - 25

Teens in 9th grade and up are invited to join Rev. Maggie, Brad Brunfelt, and Jason Butcher on a youth canoe trip this summer. We will be out for four days and three nights, doing the Timber-Frear Loop. This is an excellent opportunity to enjoy God in Nature and to have a lot of fun doing it. We can provide gear if you don't have it. Our previous group found this trip to be quite enjoyable! Registration deadline is June 1. Cost: $100, scholarships available. Safe Haven Needs Your Old Cell Phones

Can you donate your used cell phones and accessories to Safe Haven? They provide emergency 911 phones to guests and clients who need a device to discreetly reach emergency services. They work with a company in Florida, mailing in used phones and phone accessories (charging cords, etc.) and then they refurbish those devices, get them working or use them for parts to fix other phones, and send back refurbished devices and cords for Safe Haven's guests and clients. Donations can be brought to the Resource Center at 414 W. 1st St., Monday-Friday, 8 am-4 pm.
