

THE MESSENGER

MARCH 2025

A Father's Desperation

Beloved in Christ,

On Sunday, March 2 we read a story from the Gospel of Luke about a desperate father. He brings his son, who is "seized by a spirit" that convulses him, to the disciples of Jesus.

Jesus, however, happens to be up on a mountain with his three closest disciples at the time. The others try but cannot heal the boy. The father's desperation grows and grows, and when Jesus returns, there is a great commotion.

This portion of the reading is sometimes omitted for Transfiguration Sunday, which is always just before Lent begins, this year on March 2. The focus is often on the mountaintop moment, the spiritual revelation happening away from the desperate crowds below. But in the year of Luke, we get this secondary story, the story of what happens at the bottom of the mountain—after the spiritual high. In these times, the desperation of this father really strikes me.

It reminds me, on some level, of the desperation of those who have come to the United States seeking asylum, safety, and a future for their children. Today as I write this, people who have come here seeking help have been targeted and threatened by the mo St. Powerful in our country. Bishop Loya has asked us to respond, stating that "The clearest and most consistent moral imperative throughout all of scripture is the call to welcome the stranger."

Many of you have asked me what you can do to make a small difference in the onslaught of crises facing us today. There are many ways, but the simplest one is financial: Bishop Loya has established a new Migrant Support Fund. He has asked congregations in ECMN to take a special collection on Sunday, March 2 to support the fund. The hope is to have funds ready to support Episcopal ministries who are responding to needs at the grassroots level. We discussed some of these ministries at our February 26 forum. It is my hope that St. Paul's can show up in a meaningful way to answer this ask.

I know that St. Paul's can show up powerfully to answer the Bishop's request. I ask you to join us on Sunday, March 2, and give generously to support this cause. All cash and non-pledge offerings given that day will be sent to the Migrant Support Fund. You may write checks to St. Paul's with "Migrant Support Fund" in the memo line. I will match up to $1,500 received in the plate on March 2 from my discretionary account, so that we can show our support to this cause.

This is a small thing, but by doing this, we can at least show up to provide resources to those who are meeting the needs of the many desperate fathers like the one in the story. It is a concrete place to start in a sea of many unknowns and chaotic variables.

Peace,

Maggie

Mark Your Calendars: Women's Retreat Friday, March 21 and Saturday, March 22

All women of the parish are cordially invited to a social and joyful retreat during the Lenten Season! This informal retreat will be held at Camp Amnicon in South Range, Wisconsin, about 25 miles from Duluth. This is mostly a gathering to make friends and connect with each other, but it will include some exploration of Celtic Spirituality, which is our Lenten theme for 2025.

We will gather in the Alleluia Lodge at Camp Amnicon at 3:00 pm on Friday afternoon, enjoy some time to socialize, pray together, make a craft, and share a potluck supper. Our schedule will also allow us to enjoy some free time for reading, walking, praying, taking a sauna and more! We close the retreat with a group prayer and check out by 1:00 pm Saturday.

Cost: $45 per person; scholarships available.

Dance at the Irish Ceili

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a traditional Irish Ceili on Monday, March 17, 6 pm at St. Paul's Parish Hall. Ceili means "party" in Gaelic and it is a time for people of all ages and abilities to dance and to celebrate Irish heritage. No partner is necessary and kids are welcome. All dances are taught with live music from the Zenith City Ceili Band. Suggested donation of $10 (or $25 for a family) benefits the work of Loaves & Fishes Community. No one turned away for lack of funds.

From Your Senior Warden

The 2025 class of Vestry members was seated at our February meeting. The Vestry will also have a half-day retreat on Saturday, March 8, where we will get to know each other a bit better, review our 2024 goals and do some visioning for 2025 and beyond.

During our 'Dwelling in the Word' discussion, two questions stood out that have caused me to continue to think about since our meeting. The first question: "What is biblical/scriptural and what is political?" In our highly charged political environment and the state of uncertainty that many of us are experiencing, how do we speak out about our desire to be more Christ-like without being overly partisan or political? Likewise the second question: "How do we follow the directive 'Do not judge,' and still recognize, call out and work against un-Christ-like behaviors?" I do not have any quick answers to these questions, and I believe wrestling with these questions is a worthy exercise.

Stay warm, everyone!

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Diener, Senior Warden

Outreach Committee Updates and Needs

Who can be on the Outreach Committee?

The Outreach Committee is open to all parishioners, who are welcome to just attend meetings or to actually join the committee. The committee meets in person every quarter and conducts other business electronically.

What does the Outreach Committee do?

The Outreach Committee decides how to disburse outreach funds. Up to December 2024, money had accumulated in the fund over several years, but after the Outreach Committee was revived at Maggie's request, it expended that money, zeroed out the fund, and requested an annual amount from the general budget for 2025 onwards. The committee also plans to conduct other fund-raising initiatives.

How much money does the Outreach Committee currently have?

For 2025, the vestry approved $6,000 to be transferred into the Outreach account. The Outreach Committee will be sending out grant application forms shortly for people to apply for a portion of these funds on behalf of a needy organization—usually local—such as Damiano, Laundry Love, Life House, Safe Haven, or Program for Aid to Victims of Sexual Assault. (St. Paul's $2,500 annual donation to CHUM comes from the General Funds, not from Outreach—yes, this is a bit confusing).

Can you donate money specifically for Outreach?

Yes, you can! You can write a check to St. Paul's Church and designate "Outreach" on the memo line. Or you can donate online, by selecting "Other" and then specifying "Outreach" in the notes section. The Outreach Committee promises to use your money wisely.

If you have questions about how to make donations, you can contact the bookkeeper, Christine Melone, at bookkeeper@stpaulsduluth.org. Please note that Outreach donations are completely separate from your annual pledge. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
Zabelle Stodola

Notes of a Different Kind...

Dear Friends in Christ,

I have some exciting news to share with you. For a long time, I have felt the need for a larger piano in the church. The instrument we have in the chancel is lovely, but it doesn't have the weight to truly lead and support a room full of people in song. We have been given a tremendous opportunity to be caretakers of a grand piano offered to us by retired professor of piano, Dr. Robert Thomas, who has been worshipping at St. Paul's since he moved to the area last July.

Church music has changed over the last 50 years. In my childhood, it was unheard of to lead congregational song with anything but the organ. However, as we have embraced other musical expressions from the Gospel and folk traditions, the organ is not always the best instrument to provide the spirit for leading this music. The piano has come into itself as an instrument of choice for such things.

In addition to more effective leadership in worship, the piano will be a great tool for outreach to the wider community. In the past, performers have inquired but had to pass on performing at St. Paul's because we do not have a concert quality piano. As word has gotten out into the musical community in town, I have already had inquiries from various groups wanting to perform in our beautiful space since now we will have a concert-quality piano.

The plan as endorsed by the Vestry involves placing the piano in front of the pulpit. This will necessitate removing some pews to make space for it. Rest assured that the pews which are removed will stay intact in case we ever want to put them back in place. This is also providing a space for conversation about wheelchair space on the lectern side of the church. We will keep you posted as to the progress of the project.

It bears mentioning that the chancel piano will remain in place and will continue to fulfill its role in worship. Logistically, it won't always make sense to use the grand piano, so the chancel piano remains a vital part of our cadre of fine instruments at St. Paul's.

Peace,

Tom Hamilton

To Become an Usher

Dear Church Family,

As our congregation grows, we need to ensure a warm and organized experience for everyone. To achieve this, we need new ushers to join our dedicated team.

Ushers are the first point of contact for attendees at Sunday services. They welcome and greet people, distribute bulletins, answer visitors' questions, collect the offering, maintain a reverent environment, and assist folks during Communion.

As an usher, you will connect with the church community, experience the joy of serving, develop hospitality and leadership skills and find fulfillment in helping others.

Training and support will be provided by experienced ushers. We have four teams who take turns, so everybody volunteers about one Sunday each month, plus other optional services for holidays, funerals, Holy Week, etc.

If this opportunity interests you, please contact Gary Olson at 218-391-4768 or garyo912@hotmail.com

Serving as an usher is a meaningful way to contribute to our faith community. Ushers are appreciated for their dedication and support in creating a welcoming and affirming environment for all. Thank you for considering this opportunity. We look forward to welcoming new ushers to our teams.

In faith and fellowship,
Gary Olson, Head Usher

The Power of Retreat

Greetings!

It's been a quick month! I can't believe I'm writing with March in mind. These last few weeks have been kind of a blur with cold weather, school breaks, and much to ponder politically. I find great comfort and relief working for St. Paul's right now, knowing that I'm working for a church with deep roots in service and care for all. Recent events have caused me to pause and reexamine my role. I've asked myself and others what children in our Church and community might need, and am listening intently. Thankfully, our Diocese is providing a wealth of guidance and support as we wade into new waters. I hope you have been reading the weekly messages from Bishop Loya, as there is a lot of information included about various ministries currently supported by ECMN, especially for migrants.

I want to tell you about the wonderful retreat I attended earlier this month at the Episcopal House of Prayer. The House of Prayer is an absolutely dreamy place that is attached to St. John's in Collegeville. I can't believe I hadn't heard about it before! I was asked to be a part of an ongoing spiritual growth opportunity that is based in Benedictine Prayer Practices. The Episcopal House of Prayer recently received a grant from the Lilly Endowment to do some long-form learning in Christian spirituality, which they are calling Transforming Hearts. It is a well-crafted, three-year program, that is designed to equip a team from a congregation with contemplative practices. The program will have online workshops, group spiritual direction, and retreats three times a year. The hope is that these leaders will be able to learn about prayer practices like the Jesus Prayer, Examen, and others, and then feel equipped to bring these back into the community. There were twelve people from Episcopal Churches from around the state present, and it was a great opportunity to reflect and rejuvenate. We were so quiet. We sat, eyes closed, for almost an hour every day in prayer. I had no idea that I needed that, but I sure did.

On the ride home with my new dear friends, Sherry Hall, Lynnea Hultkrantz, and Diane Kolquist, we talked about our experiences and hopes for this three-year-long endeavor. We talked about other stuff too- but one of the be St. Parts of the trip was making that connection with other women from St. Paul's that I didn't know very well before the weekend. I already have ideas bubbling for ways I can bring what I've learned about leading prayer into my work here. It's been a gift already.

If what I described above sounds great to you, there is an opportunity for strengthening bonds and getting to know each other for women here at St. Paul's! We are hosting a retreat on March 21-22 at Camp Amnicon. This retreat will center around connecting through shared food, games, outdoor time, art, and spiritual practice. I know how good it feels to break away from the chaos of regular life. I hope you can come! I am really excited for this. Registration form available at www.stpaulsduluth.org/signup

In strictly Faith Formation News: I want to be sure you know about Shrove Tuesday! It's just before Ash Wednesday, on March 4, 6:00 pm. This is an annual tradition that has turned into a night of feasting and fun for all! This year, we'll be serving flapjacks and french toast with accoutrements. After dinner at 6:30, prepare to be amazed by the talents of your fellow parishioners! Watch them juggle! There might be a magic trick or two! You will be serenaded! You will laugh! You might cry! Who knows? There is a paper sign up on the way downstairs to the Parish Hall for performers to use, and a signup genius for helpers. If you have questions, please email me! kids@stpaulsduluth.org.

As always, I am thankful for your support and friendship.

Peace to you,

From Your Bookkeeper

Dear Parishioners,

A reminder that 2024 Year-End Giving Statements were emailed to you at the end of January. Please check through your inbox and spam folders carefully to locate your statement.

January 2025 financials were presented to the Finance Committee and Vestry in February. Here is a summary of the January General Operating Fund results. January is typically a very good month for income, as several people catch-up on 2024 pledges and/or pay all of 2025.

| MONTHLY FIGURES: January | This Month | Year-to-Date |
|---------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Total Pledges collected | $90,121.85 | $90,121.85 |
| Total non-pledged collection | $14,900.16 | $14,900.16 |
| Investment support | $7,231.27 | $7,231.27 |
| Total Income | $112,253.28 | $112,253.28 |
| Total Expenses | $52,587.91 | $52,587.91 |
| Amount over/(short) | $59,665.37 | $59,665.37 |

*The pledge collection amount for January was well ahead of the budgeted amount.

*Expenses were slightly under budget for the month of January.

*Our bottom line, income over expenses, for January was a surplus of $59,665.37.

Currently, we have pledge commitments of $378,400 for 2025. Only $6,600 short of our goal!

142 people/families have pledged—7 short of our goal.

The St. Paul's Church Scholarship Fund

Because education is one of the most important elements of a successful society and a key factor in the well-being of a community, the Mars family established a Scholarship Fund in 1989 for members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Graduating seniors from high school or high school graduates, of any age, are eligible to apply. The scholarship recipients are chosen by a committee of people who also are members of St. Paul's and/or members of the Mars family.

The criteria to be considered are active church participation, completion of high school or GED, a demonstrated interest in completing a college or trade-oriented education process, and submitted recommendations. The awards are renewable annually for four academic years.

APPLICATIONS FOR NEW SCHOLARSHIPS for the 2025-2026 school year must be submitted to the Scholarship Committee by March 15, 2025. Application and letter of recommendation forms are available through the St. Paul's Episcopal Church website. Click on the Connect tab then scroll down to Scholarships on the sidebar.

For students in high school, college, and young adults

Are you wondering about what to do with your life, how to make a difference, and what path you should choose? Good News! Christians have been asking themselves this for thousands of years -- and -- we've come up with some great ways to break the Big Questions down into Small Steps that we can approach through prayer, story and fellowship. Steve Mulaney, from the University Episcopal Community in the Twin Cities, is visiting St. Paul's and will gather with our young folks to chat about discernment and vocation. Whether you know where you are going, have no clue, or are somewhere in-between, this conversation is for you. Join Steve, Rev. Maggie, other St. Paul's young folks to discuss finding your path. Small Group on Prayer Practices

Wednesdays, 6:00 pm,
March 5 through April 16, Olcott Room

We will begin a small group exploring our prayer lives based on the “Practicing the Way” framework from our recent group studies. We will explore a few different approaches and methods of prayer that can help to further our relationships with God. The format will include short videos followed by discussion time. We will have four meetings, starting on March 5, following the Ash Wednesday Eucharist service, and meeting every other week. (March 5, 19, April 2, April 16). Rothko Hauschildt will facilitate.

Ask the Verger

This month, I am introducing a new column in the Messenger. The premise is for the congregation to ask the Verger a liturgical question and everyone can learn from the response. I bet there are two words in that sentence that people may be unfamiliar with: #1. Verger. #2. Liturgical.

“Liturgy celebrates the mystery that is God.” (from Dennis G. Michno’s A Priest’s Handbook.) Liturgy is the “work of the people” to create common prayer. We gather together as one body to pray, praise and celebrate God. As Episcopalians, we are a liturgical Church. We believe lay ministers are a fundamental part of our worship service. Our church year and worship services follow a particular pattern. The consistency and flow of the liturgy becomes familiar. If you travel and attend other Episcopalian churches, you will find the same lectionary and patterns used as we will be using that Sunday at St. Paul’s.

A Verger is a master of ceremonies for a worship service. It would be wonderful if everything just magically happened on a Sunday morning, but it takes planning and practice from a whole team of clergy and lay ministers. From altar guild to ushers to Lay Eucharistic Ministers, each team consists of people dedicated to their particular area of ministry. A Verger’s task is to help the clergy and lay ministers work together so the service flows effortlessly and glorifies God.

Next month, I hope to write a column based on a question that somebody asks me. Will you be the first to ask a question? You can reach me at 77kathleen-smith@gmail.com, 218-341-8464, or on a Sunday morning.

Kathleen Smith, Verger

To Altar Guild,

Our Winter meeting has been moved to
