

The Episcopal Parish of St. Paul
Duluth, Minnesota

Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Eucharist

September 20, 2026

10:00 am

*After this service, please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall.
All ages welcome.*

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church

I'm New

Welcome! If you would like to stay in touch, please fill out a visitor card in the pew and place it in the offering plate after the announcements.

About Our Worship Today

Worship in the Episcopal Church is participatory and embodied. We stand and kneel, make the sign of the cross at times, sing and breathe together, and walk forward for communion each week. You are welcome to participate at your own comfort level. You will likely see people engaging differently at different times. One of the gifts of the Episcopal tradition is that there are a variety of 'right' ways to participate.

Restrooms

Exit at the side door at the front of the church and go down the hall. They are the first and second doors on the left side of the hallway.

What do I do?

This service booklet will give you the words you need and instructions. The words in bold print are said by everyone. Hymns can be found either in this booklet or in the blue or green hymnals in your pew.

May I have communion?

Yes. All may come forward to receive communion (or the Eucharist.) No one is required to receive. We serve both bread and wine. You may choose to receive at your own comfort level, both bread and wine or just bread. You may also come forward with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing, or you may choose not to come forward at all. Children may receive at any age.

Worshipping with Kids

Joyful noise is most welcome here. Many families find that sitting close to the front helps children to see and engage better with the service. There is a staffed nursery located down the hall. We also have a rocking chair in the back of church for parents with infants.

About St. Paul's

We are a community dedicated to following the Way of Love as shown to us by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Together, we practice curiosity, awe, and community to love God, love our neighbors, and love ourselves.

The Liturgical Season

In the Episcopal Church, we follow a circular calendar with special seasons. We are currently in the season following Pentecost, also called Ordinary Time. This season is observed with green to symbolize the growing, abundant earth. Half of the Christian year is this season after Pentecost, which is a season where we translate the Good News for new times and places.

1. O - pen now thy gates of beau - ty, Zi - on, let me en - ter there,
 2. Here thy praise is glad - ly chant - ed, here thy seed is du - ly sown;
 3. Thou my faith in - crease and quick - en, let me keep thy gift di - vine;
 4. Speak, O God, and I will hear thee, let thy will be done in - deed;

where my soul in joy - ful du - ty waits for God who an - swers prayer.
 let my soul, where it is plant - ed, bring forth pre - cious sheaves a - lone, how so e'er temp - ta - tionst thick - en, may thy word still o'er me shine may I un - dis - turbed draw near thee while thou dost thy peo - ple feed.

Oh, how bless - ed is this place, filled with sol - ace, light, and grace!
 so that all I hear may be fruit - ful un - to life in me.
 as my guid - ing star through life, as my com - fort in all strife.
 Here of life the foun - tain flows; here is balm for all our woes.

Opening Acclamation

Blessed be the one, holy, and Living God.

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Opening Collect

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children's Invitation and Blessing

Children (K-6th gr) are invited to come forward for a blessing, then go to Godly Play and return at The Peace.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 16:2-15

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

Then the Lord said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days." So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you shall know that it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your complaining against the Lord. For what are we, that you complain against us?" And Moses said, "When the Lord gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the Lord has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the Lord.”

Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, ‘Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.’” And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, “I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.’”

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat.”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 105:1-6, 37-45 — The note changes on the syllable in bold.

Give thanks to the Lord and call up-on his name;
make known his deeds a-mong the peoples.

Sing to him, sing praise to God,
and speak of all his marvelous works.

Glory in his holy Name;
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.
Search for the Lord and his strength;
continually seek his face.

Remember the marvels he has done,
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
○ offspring of Abra-ham his servant,
○ children of Ja-cob his chosen.

He led his people with sil-ver and gold;
in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.
Egypt was glad of their going,
because they were a-fraid of them.

He spread out a cloud for a covering and a fire to give light in the night season.
They asked, and quails appeared,
and he satisfied them with bread from heaven.

He opened the rock, and water flowed,
so the river ran in dry places.
For God remembered his holy word
and Abra-ham his servant.

So he led forth his peo-ple with gladness,
his chosen with shouts of joy.
He gave his people the lands of the nations,
and they took the fruit of others' toil,

That they might keep his statutes
and observe his laws. Hallelujah!

Second Reading

Philippians 1:21-30

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well-- since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

*Please stand and face the procession as it moves to the center of the church for the reading of the Gospel.
The cantor sings the Alleluia first; then all. The verse is sung, and the Alleluia is repeated.*

Verse: The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. (Psalm 145:8)

Holy Gospel

Matthew 20:1-16

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Maggie Nancarrow

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Form I, Book of Common Prayer, p. 383-384

Deacon: With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to our God, saying "Lord, have mercy."

After each prayer, the leader says Let us pray to our God.

The People respond, Lord have mercy.

In the communion of St. Paul and of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

The celebrant adds a concluding collect.

The Confession

Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

Please kneel or sit. Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

Please greet one another with a sign of God's peace.

Announcements

Those who are celebrating a birthday or anniversary will be invited forward after the announcements.

Birthday and Anniversary Prayer

Dear Father, we thank thee that all the year through Thy goodness has blest them with gifts ever new.
And, oh, wilt thou grant them a happy new year,
Dear Father, we pray thee, be thou ever near. Amen.

Walk in love, as Christ loved us, and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offering

Over My Head

African American Spiritual

*Over my head, I hear music in the air. There must be a God somewhere.
Oh, when the sun is risin', I hear music in the air.
Oh, when I feel like shoutin', I hear music in the air.
Oh, when I feel like singin', I hear music in the air.*

Offertory

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, Book of Common Prayer p. 361

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth....

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all ...

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. ...

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Fraction Anthem

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Christ our pass - o-ver is sac - ri-ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. al - le - lu - ia.

Invitation to Communion

*Because we believe that we gather around the Lord's table, all are welcome and encouraged to receive communion.
Gluten-free hosts are available; please request this if needed.*

Communion Hymn #309 – O Food to Pilgrims Given

Sending (Used when Lay Eucharistic Visitors are sent to bring communion to those unable to be with us.)

[Name], in the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that [Name], to whom you go, may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

We who are many are one Body because we share one bread, one cup.

Post-Communion Prayer

Book of Common Prayer, p. 365

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

Recessional Hymn #551 – Rise Up, ye Saints of God!

Dismissal

Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth Groups Begin Sept 16

The 4 to 6

4th – 6th grade from 4 pm to 6 pm
3rd Wednesdays of the Month

Upper Youth Group

7th grade & up from 6:30 to 8 pm
1st & 3rd Wednesdays of the Month

This year we will have two youth groups. Students will be given their own NRSV Bibles (as a kind of 'first grown-up Bible' gift) and will spend the year learning how to use it. We will use portions of a curriculum called Follow Me that is progressive, scriptural, and offers practical uses for the texts that we read. Because we will order a Bible for each teen in each group, registration is necessary. Register at stpaulsduluth.org/sign-up. Bible presentation and blessing will be next Sunday, September 27.

Godly Play Begins Today

This year Godly Play returns for all St. Paul's kids PreK to 6th grade. We have two Godly Play classrooms this year: one for kids aged K-3rd grade and another 3rd grade-6th, giving 3rd graders the opportunity to self-select which room is right for them. We invite your children to come and be curious, be themselves and explore all that life and their own special encounters with God is bringing them. Registration is not required for Godly Play.

Kids' Coffee Hours

TODAY, September 20, 11:15 am

Let the fun begin! Kids' coffee hours will be September 20 and October 25, in the Children's Room downstairs until noon. All ages are welcome!

New Member Cohort

Starts TODAY

Sundays, September 20 – October 11
11:30 am – 1:00 pm, Olcott Room

Are you interested in officially joining St. Paul's? New members of the St. Paul's community are invited to join a cohort. Whether you are a brand-new Episcopalian, or an ordained clergy person, this gathering has something to offer you. Based in conversation and connection, we will reflect together on questions like: what drew you here? Why Jesus? And, what does it mean to you to be part of a church? JOIN US TODAY!

Help Mail the Messenger

Thursday, September 24, 1:00 pm

Join us in the Parish Hall for about one hour to fold and tab the newsletters. It's easy and fun!

Harvest Potluck and Wild Rice Talk

Wednesday, September 30, 6:00 pm

September has five Wednesdays, which means we have a special gathering. The meal will be a themed potluck, featuring whatever local harvest you have from your garden, CSA, or however you interpret "Harvest." Nancy Schuldt will talk about wild rice and her work to restore local ricing habitat. No RSVP is needed.

Practicing The Way of Jesus

Thursdays, October 1–December 3

This program focuses on training us to live as an apprentice of Jesus. It will be offered on Thursday mornings at 10 am in the Parish Hall with coffee and fellowship as we journey together following the Way of Jesus. There is no cost to you. Please email Deacon Pat at deacon@stpaulsduluth.org to sign up.

There will be three more groups focusing on some of the Spiritual Practices from PTW. Scripture as Spiritual Practice will start October 26 – see The Messenger for more information.

Wednesday Adult Forums

Next Session: Wednesday, October 7

1st & 3rd Wednesdays of the Month

Join us every first and third Wednesday of the month after the 6 pm meal for a Cafe Discussion on building discipleship. This adult version of this fall's youth group programming will let parishioners discuss and examine our walk in faith, while parents of teens can continue the conversation on the drive home and beyond.

Wednesday Night Meal Ministry

We seek volunteers to cook meals for Wednesday night formation gatherings at St. Paul's. We could always use more help, and if you are interested in getting involved, contact Sophie, email kids@stpaulsduluth.org

Reversal:

September Sermon Series

During the month of September, St. Paul's will be doing a sermon series on God's way of reversing the order of things.

Sept 13: In God, what looks weak is actually strong.

Sept 20: In God, working hard is not the only solution.

Sept 27: In God, humility is authority.

Join us each week to learn more about how God's ways reverse our own ways, and why that is good news for our busy, overwhelmed, and distracted hearts.

Outreach Team Updates

Grants:

The Outreach Committee welcomes proposals for grants to local organizations that help people in need. To obtain the proposal form and receive more information, contact Zabelle Stodola at kzstodola@ualr.edu

Fundraising:

The Outreach Committee is sponsoring the first-ever St. Paul's Arts and Crafts Fair on Saturday, November 21, 2026, from 10 am to 3 pm. Families and friends from St Paul's who are artisans and crafters are invited to obtain more information about participating from Sue Brown, spb55803@gmail.com, or Mike Maddy, maddad55@gmail.com. The crafters' modest exhibit fee will boost funds that the Outreach Committee distributes during the upcoming holiday season.

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, October 4, 10 am

Coming up: the ever-popular Blessing of the Animals, in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. Bring your pet (leashed or in crate) to sit in church with you! Photos of pets, and stuffed animals, are also welcome. Each pet will receive a special blessing. Treats for people and their pets will be available at coffee hour. For those of you with allergies, please be aware that there will be cats and dogs in church on October 4.

Clean the Sanctuary

Saturday, October 10, 10 am

Join in a cleaning get together. We will gather at 10 am to clean the Sanctuary. Everyone is encouraged to lend a hand to vacuum, dust and clean the wood. Bring the whole family to share in the joy of our beautiful church. Sign-up sheets in front and back of church, and in Parish Hall. – Lynnea Hultkrantz

White Earth 2.0

Thursday, October 15 –

Saturday, October 17

Parishioners from St. Paul's are invited on another visit to White Earth over MEA weekend. We will be visiting our sister church, St. Columba's, meeting community members, visiting Tribal Headquarters and the Treaty Museum, and having some fun in between. This is an all-ages trip. Please email Sophie (kids@stpaulsduluth.org) for more details!

Life House Celebration Gala

Thursday, September 24, 5:00 pm

Join Life House for the first annual Celebration Gala at the Greysolon Ballroom. This event will honor ten years of Sol House --the housing program for teens who have experienced sexual exploitation and/or trafficking. It will be an inspiring evening to learn more about the impact of Sol House, hear stories from the people closest to it, and support its programming.

Sacred Heart Music Center,
201 W. 4th St., Duluth

"The Friends of the Felgemaker" proudly present From Baroque to Classical Brilliance, a grand afternoon of classical masterpieces featuring the historic Felgemaker pipe organ and an intimate chamber orchestra.

The concert showcases magnificent works by three legendary composers of the 18th century: George Friederic Handel, Joseph Haydn, and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Musicians include Sacred Heart Music Center's Resident Organist, Dr. Charles Sundquist, who will be joined by some of the region's finest orchestral players.

Tickets are $20 at Eventbrite.com or at the door.

Student rush tickets will be available at the door for $5

Jefferson Street Block Party

Saturday, October 10 from 2:00-5:00 pm

1600 block of Jefferson St

The block party is hosted by the Loaves & Fishes Community, and St. Paul's Outreach Committee is joining the fun at this potluck event, with live music, the slowest bicycle race, cider pressing, and more! Tom Diener is coming with an apple press he built (of course he did!), but we will need apples and clean plastic wide mouth bottles. Think Simply Juice large size for bottling the juice to share with our neighbors, and take some home with you! Please contact Deacon Pat if you would like to join the party or have anything to contribute to the event! deacon@StPaulsDuluth.org
