

The Episcopal Parish of St. Paul
Duluth, Minnesota

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost
Holy Eucharist
September 27, 2026
10:00 am

*After this service, please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall.
All ages welcome.*

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church

I'm New

Welcome! If you would like to stay in touch, please fill out a visitor card in the pew and place it in the offering plate after the announcements.

About Our Worship Today

Worship in the Episcopal Church is participatory and embodied. We stand and kneel, make the sign of the cross at times, sing and breathe together, and walk forward for communion each week. You are welcome to participate at your own comfort level. You will likely see people engaging differently at different times. One of the gifts of the Episcopal tradition is that there are a variety of 'right' ways to participate.

Restrooms

Exit at the side door at the front of the church and go down the hall. They are the first and second doors on the left side of the hallway.

What do I do?

This service booklet will give you the words you need and instructions. The words in bold print are said by everyone. Hymns can be found either in this booklet or in the blue or green hymnals in your pew.

May I have communion?

Yes. All may come forward to receive communion (or the Eucharist.) No one is required to receive. We serve both bread and wine. You may choose to receive at your own comfort level, both bread and wine or just bread. You may also come forward with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing, or you may choose not to come forward at all. Children may receive at any age.

Worshipping with Kids

Joyful noise is most welcome here. Many families find that sitting close to the front helps children to see and engage better with the service. There is a staffed nursery located down the hall. We also have a rocking chair in the back of church for parents with infants.

About St. Paul's

We are a community dedicated to following the Way of Love as shown to us by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Together, we practice curiosity, awe, and community to love God, love our neighbors, and love ourselves.

The Liturgical Season

In the Episcopal Church, we follow a circular calendar with special seasons. We are currently in the season following Pentecost, also called Ordinary Time. This season is observed with green to symbolize the growing, abundant earth. Half of the Christian year is this season after Pentecost, which is a season where we translate the Good News for new times and places.

Processional Hymn #450 (stanzas 1, 2, 3, and 6) – All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name

Opening Acclamation

Blessed be the one, holy, and Living God.

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Opening Collect

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children's Invitation and Blessing

Children (preK-6th gr) are invited to come forward for a blessing, then go to Godly Play and return at The Peace.

Gloria

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav-en-ly King, al-might-y God and Fa - ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on-ly Son of the Fa - ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa - ther: re-ceive our prayer. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord; you a-lone are the Most High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spir - it, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 17:1-7

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarreled with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?" But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?" So Moses cried out to the Lord, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me." The Lord said to Moses, "Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink." Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the Lord, saying, "Is the Lord among us or not?"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 78:1-4, 12-16 – The note changes on the syllable in bold.

All: Hear my teaching, O my people;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.

That which we have heard and known,
and what our fore-bears have told us,
we will not hide from their children.

We will recount to generations to come the praiseworthy deeds and the power of the LORD, and the wonderful works God has done.

God worked marvels in the sight of their ancestors,
in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan, splitting open the sea and letting them pass through;

making the waters stand up like walls;

leading them with a cloud by day,
and all through the night with a glow of fire.

splitting the hard rocks in the wilderness and giving them drink as from the deep.

bringing streams out of the cliff,
and the waters gushed out like rivers.

Second Reading

Philippians 2:1-13

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited,

but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form, he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross.

Therefore, God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name,

so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

*Please stand and face the procession as it moves to the center of the church for the reading of the Gospel.
The cantor sings the Alleluia first; then all. The verse is sung, and the Alleluia is repeated.*

Verse: My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them and they follow me. (John 10:27)

Holy Gospel

Matthew 21:23-32

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

"What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Maggie Nancarrow

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,

of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Form I, Book of Common Prayer, p. 383-384

Deacon: With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to our God, saying "Lord, have mercy."

After each prayer, the leader says Let us pray to our God.

The People respond, Lord have mercy.

In the communion of St. Paul and of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

The celebrant adds a concluding collect.

The Confession

Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

Please kneel or sit. Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.
And also with you.

Please greet one another with a sign of God's peace.

Presentation of Youth Bibles

Youth in grades 4-12 are invited to come forward to receive a bible from St. Paul's

Announcements

Those who are celebrating a birthday or anniversary will be invited forward after the announcements.

Birthday and Anniversary Prayer

Dear Father, we thank thee that all the year through Thy goodness has blest them with gifts ever new.
And, oh, wilt thou grant them a happy new year,
Dear Father, we pray thee, be thou ever near. Amen.

Walk in love, as Christ loved us, and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offering

Bless the Lord, O My Soul

Mikhail Ippolitov-Ivanoff

*Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Blessed are thou, O Lord.
Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Bless the Lord and forget not all his benefits.
Bless thou the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless his holy name.
He is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering and great in goodness.
He will not always be chiding, nor keepeth he, his wrath forever.
Bless thou the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless his holy name.
O blessed are thou, O Lord.*

—Psalm 103:1-3

Offertory

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth....

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all ...

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. ...

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth Groups

The 4 to 6

4th – 6th grade from 4 pm to 6 pm

3rd Wednesdays of the Month

Upper Youth Group

7th grade & up from 6:30 to 8 pm

1st & 3rd Wednesdays of the Month

This year we have two youth groups. Students will be given their own NRSV Bibles (as a kind of 'first grown-up Bible' gift) and will spend the year learning how to use it. We are using a curriculum called Follow Me that is progressive, scriptural, and offers practical uses for the texts that we read. Because we will order a Bible for each teen in each group, registration is necessary. Register at stpaulsduluth.org/sign-up.

Elevator Construction Scheduled

The work on the church elevator is scheduled to begin on Tuesday, September 29, and is expected to take approximately three weeks. Please note that the elevator will be out of service during construction. We hope the modernized elevator will be back in service by Monday, October 19.

Harvest Potluck and Wild Rice Talk

Wednesday, September 30, 6:00 pm

September has five Wednesdays, which means we have a special gathering. The meal will be a themed potluck, featuring whatever local harvest you have from your garden, CSA, or however you interpret "Harvest." Nancy Schuldt will talk about wild rice and her work to restore local ricing habitat. No RSVP is needed.

Practicing The Way of Jesus

Thursdays, 10:00 am, Olcott Room, October 1–December 3

This program focuses on training us to live as an apprentice of Jesus. It will be offered on Thursday mornings at 10 am in the Parish Hall with coffee and fellowship as we journey together following the Way of Jesus. There is no cost to you. Please email Deacon Pat at deacon@stpaulsduluth.org to sign up.

There will be three more groups focusing on some of the Spiritual Practices from PTW. Scripture as Spiritual Practice will start later this fall.

Bible Study: Revelation

Fridays, starts October 2, 10:00 am

REVELATION! Together we will wrestle with the book of Revelation—come join us to experience the final book of the Bible with all its unexpected symbols (dragons and beasts!), challenging visions (plagues and battles...), and timeless hope and promise. There will be lots to talk about and consider as we encounter John's New Creation described about 100 years after Jesus died. And listen for its relevance for faithful living in 2026. Bring your favorite translation of the Bible (or use one from the library) and join Reverends Marta Maddy and Barb Elliott et al.

Wednesday Adult Forums

Next Session: Wednesday, October 7

1st & 3rd Wednesdays of the Month

Join us every first and third Wednesday of the month after the 6 pm meal for a Cafe Discussion on building discipleship. This adult version of this fall's youth group programming will let parishioners discuss and examine our walk in faith, while parents of teens can continue the conversation on the drive home and beyond.

Outreach Team Updates

Grants:

The Outreach Committee welcomes proposals for grants to local organizations that help people in need. To obtain the proposal form and receive more information, contact Zabelle Stodola at kzstodola@ualr.edu

Fundraising:

The Outreach Committee is sponsoring the first-ever St. Paul's Arts and Crafts Fair on Saturday, November 21, 2026, from 10 am to 3 pm. Families and friends from St Paul's who are artisans and crafters are invited to obtain more information about participating from Sue Brown, spb55803@gmail.com, or Mike Maddy, maddad55@gmail.com. The crafters' modest exhibit fee will boost funds that the Outreach Committee distributes during the upcoming holiday season.

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, October 4, 10 am

Coming up: the ever-popular Blessing of the Animals, in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. Bring your pet (leashed or in crate) to sit in church with you! Photos of pets, and stuffed animals, are also welcome. Each pet will receive a special blessing. Treats for people and their pets will be available at coffee hour. For those of you with allergies, please be aware that there will be cats and dogs in church on October 4.

Clean the Sanctuary

Saturday, October 10, 10 am

Join in a cleaning get together. We will gather at 10 am to clean the Sanctuary. Everyone is encouraged to lend a hand to vacuum, dust and clean the wood. Bring the whole family to share in the joy of our beautiful church. Sign-up sheets in front and back of church, and in Parish Hall. – Lynnea Hultkrantz

White Earth 2.0

Thursday, October 15 –

Saturday, October 17

You are invited to White Earth over MEA weekend. We will visit our sister church, St. Columba's, meet community members, visit Tribal Headquarters and the Treaty Museum. This is an all-ages trip. Please email Sophie (kids@stpaulsduluth.org) for more details!

Pipe Organ with Chamber Orchestra Concert

TODAY, 3:00 pm

Sacred Heart Music Center, 201 W. 4th St., Duluth

"The Friends of the Felgemaker" proudly present From Baroque to Classical Brilliance, a grand afternoon of classical masterpieces featuring the historic Felgemaker pipe organ and an intimate chamber orchestra.

The concert showcases magnificent works by three legendary composers of the 18th century: George Friederic Handel, Joseph Haydn, and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Musicians include Sacred Heart Music Center's Resident Organist, Dr. Charles Sundquist, who will be joined by some of the region's finest orchestral players.

Tickets are $20 at Eventbrite.com or at the door. Student rush tickets will be available at the door for $5

Jefferson Street Block Party

Saturday, October 10 from 2:00-5:00 pm
1600 block of Jefferson St

The block party is hosted by the Loaves & Fishes Community, and St. Paul's Outreach Committee is joining the fun at this potluck event, with live music, the slowest bicycle race, cider pressing, and more! Tom Diener is coming with an apple press he built (of course he did!), but we will need apples and clean plastic wide mouth bottles. Think Simply Juice large size for bottling the juice to share with our neighbors, and take some home with you! Please contact Deacon Pat if you would like to join the party or have anything to contribute to the event! deacon@StPaulsDuluth.org
