

The Episcopal Parish of St. Paul
Duluth, Minnesota

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
Holy Eucharist
October 11, 2026
10:00 am

*After this service, please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall.
Birthday cake will be served! All ages welcome.*

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church

I'm New

Welcome! If you would like to stay in touch, please fill out a visitor card in the pew and place it in the offering plate after the announcements.

About Our Worship Today

Worship in the Episcopal Church is participatory and embodied. We stand and kneel, make the sign of the cross at times, sing and breathe together, and walk forward for communion each week. You are welcome to participate at your own comfort level. You will likely see people engaging differently at different times. One of the gifts of the Episcopal tradition is that there are a variety of 'right' ways to participate.

Restrooms

Exit at the side door at the front of the church and go down the hall. They are the first and second doors on the left side of the hallway.

What do I do?

This service booklet will give you the words you need and instructions. The words in bold print are said by everyone. Hymns can be found either in this booklet or in the blue or green hymnals in your pew.

May I have communion?

Yes. All may come forward to receive communion (or the Eucharist.) No one is required to receive. We serve both bread and wine. You may choose to receive at your own comfort level, both bread and wine or just bread. You may also come forward with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing, or you may choose not to come forward at all. Children may receive at any age.

Worshiping with Kids

Joyful noise is most welcome here. Many families find that sitting close to the front helps children to see and engage better with the service. There is a staffed nursery located down the hall. We also have a rocking chair in the back of church for parents with infants.

About St. Paul's

We are a community dedicated to following the Way of Love as shown to us by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Together, we practice curiosity, awe, and community to love God, love our neighbors, and love ourselves.

The Liturgical Season

In the Episcopal Church, we follow a circular calendar with special seasons. We are currently in the season following Pentecost, also called Ordinary Time. This season is observed with green to symbolize the growing, abundant earth. Half of the Christian year is this season after Pentecost, which is a season where we translate the Good News for new times and places.

Processional Hymn #636 – How Firm a Foundation

Opening Acclamation

Blessed be the one, holy, and Living God.

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Opening Collect

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children's Invitation and Blessing

Children (preK-6th gr) are invited to come forward for a blessing, then go to Godly Play and return at The Peace.

Gloria

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav-en-ly King, al-might-y God and Fa - ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on-ly Son of the Fa - ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa - ther: re-ceive our prayer. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord; you a-lone are the Most High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spir - it, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 32:1-14

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me." So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord." They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

The Lord said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'" The Lord said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation."

But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, "O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'" And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 106: 1-6, 19-23

Praise the Lord. O give thanks, for the Lord is good: God's love endures forever.
Who can recount your mighty acts, O Lord, or tell of all your praise? Refrain

Blessed are those who act justly and always do what is right.

Remember me, Lord, when you show favor to your people, and come to me with your saving help, so that I may see the prosperity of your chosen: rejoice with the nation's gladness, and exult with the people you have made your own. Refrain

We have sinned like our ancestors; we have erred, and we have acted wickedly.

They made a young bull in Horeb and worshipped that molten image.

So they exchanged the glory of God for the image of a creature that feeds on grass. Refrain

They forgot that you were the God who saved them by your mighty acts in Egypt, wonderful things in the land of Ham, and awesome things at the Red Sea.

So you would have destroyed them but for Moses, your chosen one, who stood before you in the breach, to turn back your wrath from their destruction. Refrain

Second Reading

Philippians 4:1-9

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand and face the procession as it moves to the center of the church for the reading of the Gospel.

All sing the Alleluia. The verse is sung by the choir, and the Alleluia is repeated.

Verse: This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in God's salvation. (Isaiah 25:9)

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.' But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

"But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Maggie Nancarrow

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Form I, Book of Common Prayer, p. 383-384

Deacon: With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to our God, saying "Lord, have mercy."

After each prayer, the leader says Let us pray to our God.

The People respond, Lord have mercy.

In the communion of St. Paul and of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

The celebrant adds a concluding collect.

The Confession

Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

Please kneel or sit. Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

Please greet one another with a sign of God's peace.

Announcements

Those who are celebrating a birthday or anniversary will be invited forward after the announcements.

Birthday and Anniversary Prayer

Dear Father, we thank thee that all the year through Thy goodness has blest them with gifts ever new.
And, oh, wilt thou grant them a happy new year,
Dear Father, we pray thee, be thou ever near. Amen.

Walk in love, as Christ loved us, and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offering

The Lord Is My Shepherd (from Requiem)

John Rutter

*The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing.
He shall feed me in a green pasture, and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
He shall restore my soul, and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
Thou shalt prepare a table for me against them that trouble me:
Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
But thy lovingkindness and mercy shall follow all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

All are welcome to support St. Paul's as an expression of gratitude for God's generosity. Your gift in this offering sustains and enriches our prayer, learning, and community services. For those who do not carry cash or check, you can use this QR code to donate online.

Offertory

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, Book of Common Prayer p. 361

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,

Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth....

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all ...

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. ...

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Fraction Anthem

O Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world:
have mer - cy on us, mer - cy on us.
O Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world:
grant us vi-sion, grant us jus-tice, grant us your own true peace.

Invitation to Communion

*Because we believe that we gather around the Lord's table, all are welcome and encouraged to receive communion.
Gluten-free hosts are available; please request this if needed.*

Communion Music: Praise the One Who Breaks the Darkness – arr. Kevin McChesney

Sending (Used when Lay Eucharistic Visitors are sent to bring communion to those unable to be with us.)

[Name], in the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that [Name], to whom you go, may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

We who are many are one Body because we share one bread, one cup.

Post-Communion Prayer

Book of Common Prayer, p. 365

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

Recessional Hymn – Praise the One Who Breaks the Darkness

1. Praise the One who breaks the dark-ness with a lib - er - at - ing light;
2. Praise the One who blessed the chil - dren with a strong yet gen - tle word;
3. Praise the one true love in - car - nate: Christ, who suf - fered in our place;

praise the One who frees the pris - 'ners, turn-ing blind-ness in - to sight.
praise the One who drove out de - mons with a pierc - ing two-edged sword.
Je - sus died and rose for man - y that we may know God by grace.

Praise the One who preached the gos - pel, heal-ing ev - 'ry dread dis - ease,
Praise the One who brings cool wa - ter to the des - ert's burn-ing sand;
Let us sing for joy and glad-ness, see-ing what our God has done.

calm - ing storms and feed-ing thou-sands with the ver - y bread of peace.
from this well comes liv - ing wa - ter quench-ing thirst in ev - 'ry land.

A discussion group on building discipleship, using the same topics and bible passages explored by the youth groups.

Celebration Brunch: Coming Together to Build Community Sunday, October 25

Join us after the 10 am service on Sunday, October 25, for a parish-wide Celebration Brunch. During our time of fellowship, we invite you to take a brief walkthrough of the third-floor youth spaces, one of many examples of how your annual giving sustains and transforms our ministries. We can't wait to share a wonderful meal and celebrate our shared future with you!

Messenger Deadline

The deadline for the November issue of the Messenger is 8:00 am, Thursday, October 22. Please email submissions to Rita at office@stpaulsduluth.org

Feast of All Saints

Sunday, November 1

We remember all the blessed saints who have gone before us on All Saints Day, which will be solemnly celebrated at St. Paul's on Sunday, November 1. Please add the names of your loved ones who have passed away since last November to our clipboard list in the sanctuary, or call Rita in the Parish Office. All the names will be read aloud at the 10 am service on All Saints' Day. Children are encouraged to dress up as their favorite saint. We also have an enthusiastic group of six children getting baptized that day!

A Video Presentation of CREATION by Dan Forrest

Thursday, October 15, 4:30 pm

St. Andrew's by the Lake Episcopal Church, 2702 Minnesota Ave, Duluth

Please join us for this free presentation of the June 13, 2026 concert in Rochester, Kent, England. Light snacks and beverages offered. St. Paul's own Melody Chilson performed in this concert!

The Philadelphia Eleven Film

Wednesday, November 11, 6:30 pm

Zinema, 222 E. Superior St., Duluth

Join your St. Paul's friends for a screening of the 2023 documentary film "The Philadelphia Eleven" at Zinema. The Philadelphia Eleven are the eleven women who were the first women ordained priests in the Episcopal Church on July 29, 1974, two years before General Convention affirmed and explicitly authorized the ordination of women to the priesthood. In honor of this group of eleven brave women, we scheduled this film screening for Wednesday, November 11! Meet at Zinema at 6:30 pm. Tickets will be sold only through St. Paul's Parish Office. Choose a price: $11.11 to honor the group of eleven women; OR $52.00 to honor the 52 years since their ordination!

Make check payable to St. Paul's, or use the website to pay electronically (choose Event Registration for the fund). Either way, please contact Rita in the Parish Office (218-724-3535) to reserve a spot!

Calling all Crafters!

Saturday, Nov. 21, 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

The St. Paul's Outreach Grants Committee is organizing the first ever St Paul's Craft Fair for Saturday, November 21, from 10 to 3, to raise added funds for the holiday season. We are calling on crafters in the congregation, as well as your family and friends who are crafters, to be vendors. We know there are LOTS of crafters out there! A $40 rental fee buys an 8' by 8' space for an individual or up to three people to share. Crafters keep all sales proceeds. The fair and an accompanying bake sale will be advertised and open to the public. But, there must be a critical mass of committed crafters to proceed with these plans!

Please contact Natalie Constance

natccon@gmail.com or Mike Maddy maddad55@gmail.com for further details. If you don't have enough to be a vendor but would like to contribute something, you can donate an item to a table with other donated things whose proceeds will benefit the church.

Silent Film at Sacred Heart Music Center

Friday, October 23, 7:00 pm

Sacred Heart Music Center

201 W. 4th St., Duluth, MN

The Friends of The Felgemaker invite you to experience what it was like to attend a silent movie! Renowned organist Aaron David Miller will accompany the classic 1920 silent horror film "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari" on Friday, Oct. 23 on the historic Felgemaker pipe organ. Perfect for the Halloween season, "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari" is spooky, stylish and historically significant. It is a groundbreaking German horror film which set standards for creative camera work and featured a dark and twisted style of storytelling. It is widely considered the first true horror story put to film. This masterpiece influenced later film directors such as Alfred Hitchcock and Tim Burton. Attendees are encouraged to come dressed for Halloween, adding to the film's haunted atmosphere.

Aaron David Miller returns to Sacred Heart Music Center to accompany this film on the Center's outstanding Felgemaker pipe organ. Miller is noted for his highly imaginative and creative style, found in his performances, improvisations and compositions. He has won numerous international awards for improvisation and has given concerts and accompanied silent films across the country. Advance adult tickets are available on Eventbrite. Tickets will be available at the door for $20 while supply lasts. All students can pay $5 at the door. Doors at 6 pm. Show at 7 pm.

Help Someone Learn English

Volunteer opportunity: Be an ESL tutor and help someone learn English. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 5:00-6:30 pm. Classes will be held at the Building for Women, 32 E. 1st Street, Duluth.
