

The Episcopal Parish of St. Paul
Duluth, Minnesota

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
Holy Eucharist
October 25, 2026
10:00 am

*After this service, please join us for a Community Celebration Brunch in the Parish Hall.
All ages welcome.*

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church

I'm New

Welcome! If you would like to stay in touch, please fill out a visitor card in the pew and place it in the offering plate after the announcements.

About Our Worship Today

Worship in the Episcopal Church is participatory and embodied. We stand and kneel, make the sign of the cross at times, sing and breathe together, and walk forward for communion each week. You are welcome to participate at your own comfort level. You will likely see people engaging differently at different times. One of the gifts of the Episcopal tradition is that there are a variety of 'right' ways to participate.

Restrooms

Exit at the side door at the front of the church and go down the hall. They are the first and second doors on the left side of the hallway.

What do I do?

This service booklet will give you the words you need and instructions. The words in bold print are said by everyone. Hymns can be found either in this booklet or in the blue or green hymnals in your pew.

May I have communion?

Yes. All may come forward to receive communion (or the Eucharist.) No one is required to receive. We serve both bread and wine. You may choose to receive at your own comfort level, both bread and wine or just bread. You may also come forward with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing, or you may choose not to come forward at all. Children may receive at any age.

Worshipping with Kids

Joyful noise is most welcome here. Many families find that sitting close to the front helps children to see and engage better with the service. There is a staffed nursery located down the hall. We also have a rocking chair in the back of church for parents with infants.

About St. Paul's

We are a community dedicated to following the Way of Love as shown to us by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Together, we practice curiosity, awe, and community to love God, love our neighbors, and love ourselves.

The Liturgical Season

In the Episcopal Church, we follow a circular calendar with special seasons. We are currently in the season following Pentecost, also called Ordinary Time. This season is observed with green to symbolize the growing, abundant earth. Half of the Christian year is this season after Pentecost, which is a season where we translate the Good News for new times and places.

Processional Hymn #680 – O God, Our Help in Ages Past

Opening Acclamation

Blessed be the one, holy, and Living God.

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Opening Collect

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children's Invitation and Blessing

Children (preK-6th gr) are invited to come forward for a blessing, then go to Godly Play and return at The Peace.

Gloria

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heav-en-ly King, al-might-y God and Fa - ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on-ly Son of the Fa - ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa - ther: re-ceive our prayer. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord; you a-lone are the Most High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spir - it, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 34:1-12

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 90:1-6, 13-17

One: Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

All: Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born,
from age to age you are God.

One: You turn us back to the dust and say,
“Go back, O child of earth.”

All: For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past and like a watch in the night.

One: You sweep us away like a dream;
we fade away suddenly like the grass.

All: In the morning it is green and flourishes;
in the evening it is dried up and withered.

One: Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry?
be gracious to your servants.

All: Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

One: Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us and the years in which we suf-fered adversity.

All: Show your ser-vants your works and your splendor to their children.

One: May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper the work of our hands; pros-per our handiwork.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand and face the procession as it moves to the center of the church for the reading of the Gospel.

All sing the Alleluia. The verse is sung by the choir, and the Alleluia is repeated.

Verse: Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. (1 John 4:11)

Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:34-46

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet"'?
If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

Melanie Spencer

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Deacon: Let us join together in prayer to our God of all creation and source of every blessing.

After each prayer, the leader says God of grace and glory,
The People respond, Hear our prayer.

The celebrant adds a concluding collect.

The Confession

Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

Please kneel or sit. Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.
And also with you.

Please greet one another with a sign of God's peace.

Announcements

Those who are celebrating a birthday or anniversary will be invited forward after the announcements.

New Member Welcome Blessing

We give thanks to God for your presence, and for your desire to journey with us as we live out our faith in community.

In the name of Christ we welcome you.

May our faith community help you become the person God created you to be, giving you spiritual support so you can love God with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength, and your neighbor as yourself.

In the name of Christ we welcome you.

May the people of St. Paul's rejoice with you when you rejoice, and weep with you when you weep. When you are hurt or offended, or when you hurt or offend another, may you make amends and seek forgiveness so that we may live into Christ's vision of reconciling love.

In the name of Christ we welcome you.

May we help you discover and receive gladly the unique gifts God has given you for service in God's mission.

In the name of Christ we welcome you.

May God love, protect and encircle you with the light of Christ. Amen.

Departure Blessing

Mary Dragich & John Pastor, and Holly Hansen will be invited forward for a blessing

Birthday and Anniversary Prayer

Dear Father, we thank thee that all the year through Thy goodness has blest them with gifts ever new.
And, oh, wilt thou grant them a happy new year,
Dear Father, we pray thee, be thou ever near. Amen.

Walk in love, as Christ loved us, and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offering

The Wings of the Morning

Marie Pooler

*If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall thy hand lead me. There, even there, shall thy hand hold me.
When I wake I am still with thee, O God.*

— Psalm 139

All are welcome to support St. Paul's as an expression of gratitude for God's generosity. Your gift in this offering sustains and enriches our prayer, learning, and community services. For those who do not carry cash or check, you can use this QR code to donate online.

Offertory

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, Book of Common Prayer p. 361

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth....

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all ...

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. ...

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power,

and the glory,

forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Fraction Anthem

Invitation to Communion

*Because we believe that we gather around the Lord's table, all are welcome and encouraged to receive communion.
Gluten-free hosts are available; please request this if needed.*

Communion Hymn #602 – Jesu, Jesu (The choir will sing the verses. All join on the refrain.)

Sending (Used when Lay Eucharistic Visitors are sent to bring communion to those unable to be with us.)

[Name], in the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that [Name], to whom you go, may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

We who are many are one Body because we share one bread, one cup.

Post-Communion Prayer

Book of Common Prayer, p. 365

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

Recessional Hymn #657 – Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

Dismissal

Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia. Alleluia.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Celebration Brunch: Coming Together to Build Community TODAY

Join us after the 10 am service for a parish-wide Celebration Brunch. During our time of fellowship, we invite you to take a brief walkthrough of the third-floor youth spaces, one of many examples of how your annual giving sustains and transforms our ministries. We can't wait to share a wonderful meal and celebrate our shared future with you!

Did You Know?

A dedicated team of a dozen St. Paul's parishioners regularly prepares and serves lunch at the Damiano Soup Kitchen. Our Outreach Committee, backed by our general church budget, partners with the Damiano Center to support these ongoing, hands-on efforts. By making your annual pledge, you help fund the micro-grants that let us show up, share a meal, and build deep connections in our wider Duluth community.

Feast of All Saints

Sunday, November 1, 10:00 am

We remember all the blessed saints who have gone before us on All Saints Day, which will be solemnly celebrated at St. Paul's on Sunday, November 1. Please add the names of your loved ones who have passed away since last November to our clipboard list in the sanctuary, or call Rita in the Parish Office. All the names will be read aloud at the 10 am service on All Saints' Day. Children are encouraged to dress up as their favorite saint. We also have an enthusiastic group of six children getting baptized that day!

Choral Evensong

Sunday, November 1, 6:00 pm

Evensong is a tradition in the Episcopal Church that has been done for centuries. It is done each evening in monastic communities and quite often in cathedral settings. Most often, the music is sung to simple chanted tunes. On the higher feast days, however, it is a more elaborate liturgy and sung by the choir while the assembly allows the music of the psalms and prayers and other things to provide moments of reflection. Major elements in the service include a sung Magnificat ("My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God.") as well as the Song of Simeon ("Lord, now you let your servant depart in peace"). Along with sung
