Finding Our Anchor: Coming Together to Build Community

When Eric and I moved to Duluth three years ago, we knew we were looking for more than just a place to live; we were searching for a solid anchor. We needed a space to build a supportive, faith-based network in our new city. We found that anchor at St. Paul's.

That experience of arriving at a place of deep spiritual connection is not just our story; it is the living fabric of this parish. Recently, fellow parishioner Alex Pettit shared a beautiful reflection on what finding his own anchor here has meant:

> "Baptism in my seventeenth year as an AARP member affirmed an overdue commitment to shedding unproductive habits of thought, deed, and imagination. The majestic Episcopal liturgy and the generous, trenchant sermons at St. Paul's help me do so, week after week. My gratitude to those who guided me there, and to those who have sustained me since my arrival, is immense."

Alex's gratitude captures the exact spirit of our 2027 Annual Giving Campaign: Coming Together to Build Community. The liturgy that centers us, the sermons that challenge us, and the welcoming hands that sustain us are all made possible through our shared financial stewardship.

Whether you are finding your footing in your first years here or have been a pillar of this church for decades, your pledge allows St. Paul's to be a steadfast anchor for the next person who walks through our doors.

As we continue forward with our annual giving campaign, I invite you to prayerfully reflect on the impact this community has on your own life. Please complete your 2027 Pledge Card and bring it with you on November 8th. If you're unable to make it on the 8th, you can drop off your completed Pledge Card at any time most convenient for you.

Thank you for your generosity, your faith, and for being such a vital part of our shared anchor.

Chris Meehan

On behalf of the 2027 Annual Giving Co-Chairs: Eric Jundt, Diane Kolquist, Diane Morin

Notes from the Rector

St. Paul's is pleased to welcome three households to the church this month! Please share a warm welcome with Gabriella Pangborn, Sarah Floerke, and the Taylor family: Callie, Brandon and their two teens Jack and Abby.

In the next season, we are also blessed with the chance to welcome eight children and infants into the household of God through baptism.

November 1

Silje and Tova Sundberg
Ingrid and August Nelson
Irving and Sheamus Malone

December 6

Reese Sederberg (daughter of Derek & Haley Sederberg)

January 10

Wyatt Anderson (son of Kate Hartley Anderson & Jason Anderson)

I'm also excited for our screening of The Philadelphia Eleven on November 11 at Zeitgeist. This film chronicles the story of the first 11 women ordinated to the priesthood in Philadelphia in 1974. Following the movie, on Sunday November 15, instead of a sermon we will have a panel of women priests from St. Paul's! I'll be interviewing the Revs. Sally Maxwell, Marta Maddy, and Barbara Elliott about their paths to the priesthood.

Good news is afoot at St. Paul's!

Peace,

Maggie

From Your Senior Warden

As I write this message today at St. Paul's Church, I witnessed a massive crane lifting the liner for the chimney for the new gas-fired boilers. It was awesome to see this nearly 60-foot-long pipe being inserted in the chimney. Soon the boilers will be fired, and the new computerized thermostat system will be tested. Each of the 77 radiators in the Parish Hall and Sanctuary can be controlled by an app on a web-based computer device. Jay Austin, Mike French, and Mike Maddy will be trained to operate this system, which will allow precise control and programming. High efficiency will be achieved with significant cost savings. Although the project took about a month longer to complete, it's expected to be fully operational by the end of October, in time for colder weather.

The elevator modernization project was completed on time, October 15, by Larson Elevator Company. Take a ride and check out the smooth and quiet ride.

Vestry business conducted over the last month included approving repair of the 40 missing or broken slates on the roof for $13,500 to be done by Jamar Company before winter. The cost will be covered by the Hartley Sisters Building Fund, but not from the Building Our Legacy/Heritage Fund (Capital Campaign Fund). The Vestry discussed various options for the tuckpointing project and asked Streator Masonry Company to submit a proposal, bid, and contract for a portion of the work to be done summer 2027. This large project will be divided into three phases and conducted over one to five or more years as cashflow allows from the Building Our Legacy/Heritage Fund. More information to come as this project evolves over the next several months and years. Lastly, the Vestry, along with the Finance Committee, is working on the 2027 budget, which will be presented at the annual parish budget forum in January, 2027.

From Deacon Pat

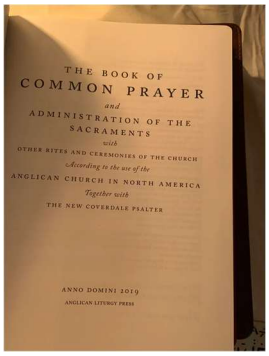

In my sermon on October 18. we heard Pharisees and Herodians try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes to Rome. Jesus asked whose image is on a Roman coin, before saying, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." I reminded you that you are created in God's image, that we as a community are together "imitators of Christ" and marked by our "work of faith, labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ" as we give to God the things that are God's.

In order to imitate Jesus, we must know him, spend time with him, observe him, follow him, and do as he does.

Practicing the Way is a program offered at St. Paul's that focuses on developing patterns and habits that transform us into imitators of Christ as we learn about and practice spiritual disciplines throughout the ages. This week was about prayer, different types of prayer, different resources to help us pray. As Episcopalians we have a tremendous resource in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP), not only for Sunday worship but for every day and every occasion! But it's a thick book and can feel complicated at first, so I'm offering a "Newcomer's Guide to Morning Prayer."

Our liturgical calendar is structured in a three-year cycle for Sunday worship, and we are currently nearing the close of Year A in the Revised Common Lectionary. The calendar resets on the first Sunday of Advent, when we will move into Year B – so you will experience the same readings again every three years (summary on p. 888 BCP).

The Daily Office Lectionary is similarly set up on a two-year cycle, and we will begin Year One also on the first Sunday of Advent (summary on pp. 934-935 BCP). I'm writing on October 21st, and today we have the scheduled readings for Wednesday in Proper 24 (the week of the Sunday closest to October 19).

Daily Morning Prayer Rite II begins on p. 75 BCP, and the schedule of today's readings is on p. 989 BCP. Each day of the week has an assigned Psalm, Old Testament, New Testament, Gospel, and several additional canticles and prayers.

Confused yet? Once you master the pattern it is quite easy to follow, but initial navigation feels complicated!

I find it helpful to set up a ritual around Morning Prayer. In mild weather it's out on the front porch. When it gets too cold, I move indoors, but always use the same chair, brew a cup of tea, light a Trinity candle to help me focus, and begin with a few deep breaths and silence. Just start on p. 75 BCP, use the daily lectionary schedule (about p. 991 BCP) for the appropriate date. Directions are given throughout to guide you to the appropriate prayers for the day, except for the various Canticles arranged from pp. 85-96 BCP. You can find the schedule for Suggested Canticles for Morning Prayer on p. 144 BCP.

Daily Office includes Morning Prayer, Noonday Prayer (p. 103), Evening Prayer (p. 115 BCP, uses the same lectionary schedule as Morning Prayer) and Compline (p. 127 BCP).

These are all suitable to use individually or in a group. Shorter Daily Devotions for Individuals and Families begin on p. 136 BCP and follow the same timing as Daily Office but are brief and a wonderful way to re-center throughout the day to remind us we are in the presence of God. The Bible is also a very large book, and it's helpful to have a guide to reading Scripture. I like to journal anything that particularly stood out to me in the readings or prayers that day, what the Holy Spirit brings up for me to consider and reflect on.

Scripture as Spiritual Practice:

The library we call "the Bible" can connect us to God and change who we are, but distraction, hurry, and confusion can hinder our experience with these ancient texts. Rediscover how to engage Scripture as an apprentice to Jesus. Join me for this four-part series as we prepare for the Advent Season!

Meet on Tuesdays, November 3, 10, December 1 and 8, at 5:00 pm, in the Olcott Room.

Blessings,
Deacon Pat

The Philadelphia Eleven

Join your St. Paul's friends for a screening of the 2023 documentary film "The Philadelphia Eleven" at Zinema – 222 E. Superior St., Duluth.
The Philadelphia Eleven are the first women ordained priests in the Episcopal Church on July 29, 1974, two years before General Convention affirmed and explicitly authorized the ordination of women to the priesthood. In honor of this group of eleven brave women, we scheduled this film screening for Wednesday, November 11! Meet at Zinema at 6:30 pm. Tickets will be sold only through St. Paul's Parish Office.
Choose a price: $11.11 to honor the group of eleven women; OR $52.00 to honor the 52 years since their ordination!

Make check payable to St. Paul's, or use the website to pay electronically (choose Event Registration for the fund). Either way, please contact Rita in the Parish Office (218-724-3535) to reserve a spot!

"It took courage to follow a call to the priesthood when family, friends, church leaders, and neighbors said it was not possible for a woman to be a priest. What gave these women the conviction to be who they were called to be despite it all? What does it take -- in the words of the Rev. Merrill Bittner -- to speak truth even as our "voices shake"?
We all may have a different way to understand and answer where our courage lies: in our community… through our vocations… and in solidarity."

Outreach Team Updates

Outreach Grants:
The Outreach Committee welcomes proposals for grants to local organizations that help people in need. Send in your grant request by November 30 to be considered at the winter quarterly meeting. To obtain the proposal form and receive more information, contact Zabelle Stodola at kzstodola@ualr.edu

Arts, Crafts, and Bake Sale

- The Outreach Committee is sponsoring the first-ever St Paul's Arts, Crafts, and Bake Sale on Saturday, November 21, 2026, from 10 am to 3 pm, in the Parish Hall. All proceeds will benefit our community partners in need and will be distributed over this holiday season.
- CRAFTERS: It's not too late to sign up for a table. Contact Mike Maddy as soon as possible at maddad55@gmail.com for details and an application form.
- BAKERS: If you would like to contribute goods to the bake sale, please contact Mike Maddy at maddad55@gmail.com for more information.
- DONORS: Got a piece or two that's art-y or craft-y that you would like to donate for a good cause? You can contribute them to a table with individual donated arts and crafts whose proceeds will benefit our community partners in need.
- CUSTOMERS: Please spread the word about the Arts, Crafts, and Bake Sale and support it!

Holiday Cards Fundraiser:

The Outreach Committee is selling packs of ten beautiful holiday cards for $20 showing a nativity scene that architects in 1918 originally proposed as a backdrop to the altar (a slightly different image was eventually chosen which is in the church today). Contact Zabelle Stodola to see and buy the cards at kzstodola@ualr.edu. Proceeds from card sales will help the Outreach Committee distribute more support during the upcoming holiday season.

Youth Group for Grown-Ups

Wednesdays, November 4 and 18, 6:30 pm

The Wednesday evening Adult Forum continues this month, meeting from 6:30 to 8:00 pm in the parish hall on Nov. 4 and Nov. 18. Each gathering centers on some aspect of what it means to be a follower of Jesus in real life in real time. We use a portion of Scripture as a starting point for the evening's discussion and then respond to prompts which lead us into questions and conversations. No outside reading is required; no homework is expected. Conversation in each of the gatherings has been lively, humorous, respectful, and deeply insightful.

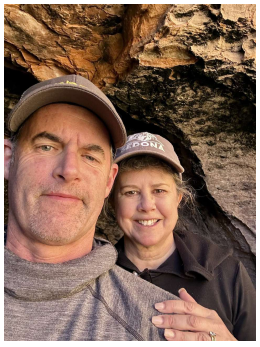

The "Follow Jesus" curriculum we use is multi-generational; the youth are using their age-appropriate materials at youth group, meeting at the same time as the adults in the Forum. We use the same Scripture passage and approach the questions and ponderings from our experiences as people of faith. There is richness for all of St. Paul's in youth and adults using the same curriculum, encountering questions of faith, and learning from each other – doing so from within their own age cohort. Think of the opportunities for cross-conversation!

Come and join us. There is ALWAYS room at the table.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Sue Sommer

New Member Introductions

Sara Floerke

Thirty years ago, Sara and Shaun Floerke moved to Duluth because they fell in love with this unpretentious, yet absolutely gorgeous city. Five children and several major careers later... they still love the city and the people who call it home. They are looking forward to worshipping and working together with this faith community of St. Paul's.

Gabriella Pangborn

Originally from Anchorage, AK, I graduated from the College of St. Benedict in 2015 and have worked in the renewable energy industry for 10 years. After traveling for work in Texas and California, my husband and I moved to Duluth in 2024 to be closer to family; John & Kathy Baumgarten, Susan & Joe Dusek, and Madeline Dusek & Ben Hrabak. I live in Lakeside with my husband Joe, dog Tully, cat Raven, and seven backyard chickens. In my free time I enjoy spending time with family and friends, running, hiking, gardening, and generally being outside. I'm excited to be a part of this wonderful faith community and learn and grow with you all!

The Taylor Family: Brandon & Callie, Jack, Abby

Callie and Brandon are both from Wyoming and met at the University of Wyoming. After marrying the summer they graduated, they moved to San Diego for graduate school, then to New York City, where their son, Jack (14), was born. They later returned to Wyoming; their daughter, Abigail (Abby, 12), was born there. After about 11 years in Wyoming, work took them to Denver, and a few years later they moved to Hermantown to be closer to Brandon's father. They love Duluth and are grateful to call this community home. Callie is an elementary school teacher, and Brandon works for a digital innovation company. The family enjoys plenty of activities: Abby studies ballet with Minnesota Ballet and loves cooking and baking; Jack plays football and basketball and enjoys solving puzzles. Callie loves reading, family time, fall, and Christmas, while Brandon enjoys golf and basketball. They look forward to growing with the St. Paul's community.

Kirkin' o' the Tartans

Sunday, November 22, 5:00 pm

The Duluth Scottish Heritage Association carries on its traditional Kirkin' o' the Tartan Evensong Service and Tea here at St. Paul's!

Evensong, led by the Rev. Maggie Nancarrow, begins with the Highland Dance students executing a reel in the in the aisles of the church. The service has elements that have been used since the time of John Knox. During the service there will be an opportunity to present your clan tartan for blessing, a tradition carried from Scotland to the New World.

At the conclusion of the church service, you will be piped downstairs to the Parish Hall to enjoy a High Tea. Following the meal, you will be entertained by the music of the Twin Ports Highlanders Pipes & Drums and performances by the Highland Dancers.

This is a fun family event! The public is invited to attend. Reservations are required; tix are available through the DSHA website: www.DuluthScots.com or by calling 218-722-1745. Cost: $40 family, $15 adults, $10 for children 6-12, children under 5 free; taxes and fees will be added to final price.

New This Year: The 4 to 6 from 4 pm to 6 pm

Monthly, 3rd Wednesdays: November 15 and December 16

Recognizing that grades 4, 5, and 6 are critical years for big questions about God and church, we're spending special attention on this crew this year. In addition to a new upper Godly Play class, these students will have a youth group opportunity once a month. "The 4 to 6" will meet on the 3rd Wednesdays, have about an hour of gathering time, and then join the 5:15 pm Eucharist. Parents are welcome to join the Eucharist with their kids and then stay for supper. The lead teachers are Maggie and Sophie.

Upper Youth Group: Grades 7 and Up from 6:30 to 8:00 pm

1st & 3rd Wednesdays: November 4 and 18, December 2 and 16

The upper youth group is geared for pre-Confirmation students but is open to those who have already been confirmed, as it is a new curriculum and a new focus. This bi-weekly group will go more in depth into the different units we are doing from Follow Me. The lead teachers in this group will be Maggie, Joann, and Brad.

In Loving Memory of Mary Olmsted

Saturday, November 21, 2:00 pm

We celebrate the life of Mary Olmsted with a funeral on Saturday afternoon, November 21. Visitation in the Church at 1:00 pm, funeral at 2:00 pm, followed by a reception in the Olcott Room. The Olmsted family invites everyone to attend. Memorials to St. Paul's Episcopal Church will be gratefully accepted.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD HAS CHRISTMAS SALE

The members of the Ladies' guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold their annual Christmas sale, Saturday, in the guildroom of the church.

There will be all manner of useful and pretty things suitable for the holiday season. Circle 6 will have a table of appetizing things to eat. Circle 5, a most attractive table for babies. There will be dresses, slips, shoes, afghans, bibs and many other things for little ones.

The other circles will have a combination of practical and pretty articles and food, maids' aprons, ironing board covers and refrigerator bags will be for sale.

A feature will be the parcel post table and during the afternoon tea will be served.

Elevator Construction Completed

We are delighted to announce that our elevator renovation has been successfully completed!

Yoga Class in St. Paul's Carriage House

Thursdays, 5:30 pm, Carriage House

Yoga is for every body! This is a beginner class but ALL are welcome. Colette, a longtime friend of St. Paul's, is the instructor. Gentle Hatha Yoga, Thursdays 5:30 pm St. Paul's Episcopal Church Carriage House. Please bring a water bottle and a yoga mat. Pay Colette directly. The Carriage House is next door to church, to the east. It has its own parking lot, accessed from Superior Street. No stairs, no long walks. This is a wonderful space with natural sunlight.

Wednesday Night Meal Ministry

We are looking for volunteers to cook meals for Wednesday night formation gatherings at St. Paul's. We could always use more help, and if you are interested in getting involved, contact Sophie kids@stpaulsduluth.org

From Your Bookkeeper

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you all for your incredible generosity to St. Paul's Church! Your contributions allow St. Paul's to be a vital part of the community and keep our programming alive.

Continual Reminder: When making your contribution to either the Capital Campaign, Annual Pledge, or any specific project, please note on the memo line of your check to which of those Funds the contribution is to be credited. When making Capital Campaign gifts through our online system, please make sure to select the "Capital Campaign" button to ensure that your contribution does not go to General Operating.

Third quarter Giving Statements were emailed on Friday, October 2. Due to software updates, the first run did not contain complete information, so a second run was done. This means you will likely have two statement emails in your inbox. Please check your spam/junk folder if you do not see the email in your inbox. Paper copies were mailed to those with no email address on file.

September 2026 financials were presented to the Finance Committee and Vestry at their October meetings. Below is a summary of the September General Operating Fund results.

MONTHLY FIGURES: September	This Month	Year-to-Date
Total Pledges collected	$29,621.41	$290,149.21
Total non-pledged collection	$4,068.00	$34,046.39
Investment support	$7,008.26	$68,732.18
Total Income	$40,697.67	$392,927.78
Total Expenses	$45,908.91	$434,133.94
Amount over/(short)	($5,211.24)	($41,206.16)

Both pledge and non-pledge income were less than budgeted for the month and year-to-date. Expenses were slightly over budget for the month of September due to upgrades to the education floor and a roof inspection yet continue to be under budget year to date.

If you have any questions, please call my office or email me at bookkeeper@stpaulsduluth.org.

Fall Bible Study

Fridays, 10 am This Fall the Friday morning Bible Study reads and discusses the book of Revelation—come join us to experience the final book of the Bible with all its unexpected symbols (dragons and beasts!) and challenging visions (plagues and battles) There will be lots to talk about and consider as we encounter John's New Creation described about 100 years after Jesus died. Bring your Bible and join Reverends Marta Maddy and Barb Elliott for the discussions on Friday mornings, 10-11 am, through December.

From the Altar Guild

NEW 2026 CHRISTMAS MEMORIALS

Every year the altar guild is joyfully tasked with decorating St. Paul's for the Christmas season. We happily adorn our beautiful church with fresh balsam wreaths, garland, cheerful poinsettias, candles, and sparkling lights for everyone to appreciate. Monetary contributions from people like you, given in honor or gratitude for someone important in your life, make this possible.

If you would like to begin a new Christmas memorial by donating towards the holiday decorations in remembrance of your loved one(s) this year, please submit your request to the Altar Guild on or before December 10. We will acknowledge your memorial by including their name(s) in the 2026 Christmas service bulletins. Contributions of any amount are welcome; $25 is suggested as a minimum. All memorials are continued year-to-year unless you indicate otherwise. Please contact me if you would like to begin a new memorial or have any questions.

Merry Christmas,

Carrie Miller, Altar Flowers Memorial Coordinator

Fall Formation Falling into Place

Greetings! I am tired but happy tonight as I sit down to write this. Tonight was especially sweet because I got to help host a session with 4-6th graders, participated in Wednesday Eucharist where the kids did an amazing job reading and leading the prayers of the people, enjoyed a delicious dinner of stuffed squash, wild rice burgers, and homemade apple cake, then met with the 7th and up group. I was impressed with the questions the kids in both groups asked as we combed through the Gospel of Matthew, their participation during the 5:15 service, and the eagerness to be here. We had a great time writing and hiding little notes of affirmation for all to find around the building; hope you come upon one! It is great to see that families are making a commitment to get their kids to church on Wednesdays, and to see that effort pay off. I think young people are really appreciating getting to spend time with Maggie, and I know she has been relishing that opportunity as well.

Last weekend, I visited White Earth with two members from St. Paul's as well as twelve from Holy Trinity Lutheran in Minneapolis. I was happy to get to know the new Vicar, Jean, who serves the four Episcopal congregations on White Earth and see some familiar faces. As a lifelong visitor to the Leech Lake and White Earth reservations, I can say that I've been able to observe change to the region positively. I am noticing that there is a sense of humor, warmth, and reclamation of culture that has been growing since I can remember as a small child. We visited a beautiful new Community College, attended a benefit for an Elder from St. Columba's, got to see new corners of the Tribal Headquarters, heard about exciting things planned for community development at Pine Point, visited St. Columba's and ate at locally owned cafés. The best part for me was getting to meet Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flannagan and see her speak in Naytahhwaush. Her family has roots in White Earth. She was authentic, warm and articulate. This visit was a different experience than last year, but still a treasure. The churches on White Earth were the first Episcopal Churches in the state, and I believe it's important to keep those ties strong through visiting, support, friendship and invitation.

Here's what's happening in youth formation this month at St. Paul's:

Sunday, November 1: All Saints Sunday. Kids are invited to dress as a Saint, bring something symbolic of that Saint, or a picture of someone they'd like to remember to carry during our "Parade of Saints" during the procession. There will be six baptisms during the service, and children will stay in the sanctuary so they can observe and support their friends as they take this step. During the Offertory, kids are invited to sing "I've Just Come from the Fountain" with the choir.

Wednesday, November 4: 7th grade and up youth group will meet after dinner 6:30-8:00 pm

Sunday, November 15: Kids Coffee hour after the 10 am service in the Children's Room

Wednesday, November 18: 4-6th grade youth group from 4-6, Dinner at 6:00 pm, 7th grade and up youth group from 6:30-8:00 pm

Sunday, November 29: Advent Wreath assembly in the Parish Hall after the 10 am service. Dress with sap and glue in mind!

Wednesday, December 2: 7th grade and up youth group will meet after dinner 6:30-8:00 pm

Godly Play Schedule

- November 1: Children stay in the sanctuary for Baptisms
- November 8: PreK-3 -- Ten Best Ways. 3-6 -- St. Margaret of Scotland
- November 15: Work
- November 22: PreK-3 -- Ruth; 3-6 -- St. Thomas Aquinas
- November 29: Work
- December 6: Advent 1 & 2 (both classes)

I am so impressed at the teamwork that I've seen this fall. A big thank you to all who have volunteered time and talent to teach, lead, cook, greet, make, and do! It's been great to see all the ways that people are showing up for each other at St. Paul's.

Peace to you,

Sophie Gray, Faith Formation Coordinator
